

📖 Developing a Love for the Quran

🗣️ Shaykh Ziyad @ EEIS

📅 Sunday, 10th May

💡 1. INTRODUCTION: KNOWLEDGE & LOVE

- The foundational principle: You can only truly love and appreciate what you know about.
- ⚽ The Football Analogy: A devoted Arsenal fan knows every single game, the scores, and the goalscorers for the last 5-6 seasons. This knowledge is the proof of his love.
- The Lesson: To love the Quran, we must move beyond surface-level familiarity and gain deep knowledge of its nature and origins.

☀️ 2. THE QURAN AS A MIRACLE (I'JAZ)

The term I'jaz means it is inimitable—impossible to copy.

📖 A. Historical Miracles:

- Predictions: In Surah Ar-Rum, Allah predicted the Roman victory over Persians when the Romans were losing so badly they were "in the relegation zone."
- The Pharaoh: The Quran claimed Fir'aun's body would be saved as a sign. Today, those remains are in the British Museum.

🔬 B. Natural (Scientific) Miracles:

- Clouds: Ancient views saw them as weightless "cotton wool." The Quran says they are "heavy" (laden with water).
- Embryology: It describes fetal stages that align with modern ultrasound findings unknown at the time of revelation.

🗣️ C. Linguistic Miracles:

- The AI Challenge: Even with Claude or ChatGPT, the Quran remains unique. AI only rearranges existing data; the Quran contains unique knowledge of the future and has perfect, contradiction-free internal logic.

🚀 3. HISTORY AND STAGES OF REVELATION

The Quran is "uncreated" and came from Allah in three stages:

- ① The Preserved Tablet (Lauh Mahfuz): The original source.
- ② The House of Honor (Bayt al-Izza): In the heavens directly above the Ka'bah.
- ③ Planet Earth: Revealed incrementally over 23 years via Jibreel in response to real-life events.

✅ Proofs of Divine Authorship:

- Stylistic Contrast: The style of the Quran is fundamentally different from the Prophet's (pbuh) personal speech (Hadith).
- The Element of Correction: In Surah Abasa, Allah corrects the Prophet (pbuh) regarding the blind man, Abdullah ibn Umm Maktum. An author writing their own book wouldn't include self-criticism; its inclusion proves he was transmitting a message, not composing it.

4. ENGAGING WITH THE QURAN

The Quran is a book of guidance, not a ritual object.

 Three Purposes:

Recitation (Tilawah): 10 rewards per letter (even for Alif-Lam-Mim). If you struggle, you get a double reward for effort!

Learning the Meaning: This is the core purpose. It is better to read half the Quran in a year with deep reflection than finish it twice without comprehension.

 Resources: Dr. Khattab (The Clear Quran), Abdel Haleem (Oxford), Mufti Taqi Usmani (Noble Quran), or Quran.com.

Purification (Tazkiyah): It must impact character. The Shaykh shared a story of a man who saw "crooks in the front row" of the mosque—beautiful reciters who were dishonest in dealings. Beautiful recitation is meaningless without honest conduct.

5. FINAL THOUGHT: THE OCEAN OF HONOR

The Quran is an "infinite ocean." The text is static, but the "waves" of meaning are dynamic—verses "click" differently depending on your life circumstances.

✨ The Honor of Association:

Everything associated with the Quran is elevated:

- Language → Arabic
- Month → Ramadan
- Night → Laylat al-Qadr
- Prophet → Muhammad (pbuh)
- People → The Sahaba (who lived and breathed it)

CONCLUSION:

We seek honor in capitalist systems or "colonized" mindsets, but true honor is in the Quran. As Imam Malik stated: "The latter part of this community will only be rectified by that which rectified its beginning."
